

Information about authors

- DALIA SURVUTAITĖ – Doctor of Social Sciences (Educational Science), Associate Professor of the Department of Educational Science at the Lithuanian University of Educational Sciences. Areas of research interests: relations between school and society, the history and philosophy of education, the methodology of educational research. Studentų St. 39-327, Vilnius LT-08106. E-mail: dalia.survutaite@vpu.lt
- AUDRONĖ JUODAITYTĖ – Doctor of Social Sciences (Education), Professor of Siauliai University, Lithuania, Director of the Scientific Center of Educational Researches. Scientific interests: the quality of higher education, the phenomena of childhood, training the teachers of childhood. E-mail: etmc@cr.su.lt
- ANTANAS SAVICKIS – first-year post-graduate student at the Lomonosov Moscow State University, GSP-1, Leninskie Gory, Moscow, 119991, Russian Federation. Interest of study: hermeneutic pedagogy. E-mail: antanas.savickis@gmail.com
- SANDRA KAIRĖ – Master in Social Science (Education). Vilnius University, Lithuania. Research interests: learning through experience, non-formal education, intercultural learning. E-mail: sandra.kaire@fsf.vu.lt
- VITA VENSLOVAITĖ – doctoral student of Social Sciences (Education) at the Department of Education of Vilnius University, Lithuania. Research fields: philosophy of education, musical education, phenomenology in education. E-mail: vitavensl@gmail.com
- ELVYDA MARTIŠAUSKIENĖ – Habilitated Doctor of Social Sciences (Education), professor of Vilnius University of Educational Sciences, Lithuania, Department of Educology. Main interests of scientific research: general educology, methodology of moral and spiritual research. E-mail: martisauskiene@gmail.com
- AĻESJA ŠAPKOVA (Alesja Sapkova) – PhD Student, Mg. Math., Daugavpils University, the Faculty of Education and Management. Academic interests: research in mathematics education, mathematics teachers' beliefs, relationship between teachers' beliefs and students' achievements. E-mail: alesja.shapkova@gmail.com
- ROMAN VORONOVICH – master of chemistry, postgraduate student, Vilnius University, Faculty of Philosophy, Department of Educology, Lithuania. Fields of scientific interests: chemistry education, implementation of ICT in chemistry teaching, chemistry didactics. E-mail: roman.voronovic@gmail.com
- IVETA ĶESTERE – Doctor of Social Sciences, historian of education and chief researcher at the Institute of Educational Sciences, University of Latvia. She has taught courses including the History of Pedagogy, Pedagogical Ideas in the 20th Century, Historical Sources in Pedagogical Research, and the Historical and Modern Image of the Teacher in the bachelor, master and doctoral programs. For the last six years, she has pursued her academic interests at the University of Leuven, Belgium. She is the author of more than 50 articles and author or co-editor of six books

(among them co-editor of the History of Education and Pedagogical Thought in the Baltic Countries up to 1940: an Overview, published in 2009). She is a member of the Executive Committee of the International Standing Conference for the History of Education (ISCHE) and the Board member of the Baltic Association of Historians of Pedagogy. Her academic interests include the research methodology of the history of education, education in the Soviet Union, the history of educational sciences, and the history of the teaching profession. E-mail: iveta.kestere@lu.lv

CHARL C. WOLHUTER – PhD, studied at the University of Johannesburg, the University of Pretoria, the University of South Africa, and the University of Stellenbosch. His doctorate was earned in Comparative Education at the University of Stellenbosch. He is a former junior lecturer of History of Education and Comparative Education at the University of Pretoria and a former senior lecturer at the University of Zululand. He currently teaches Comparative Education at the North-West University, Potchefstroom Campus, South Africa. For the 2012 winter semester, he is a visiting professor of Comparative and International Education at the Brock University, Canada. He is the author of several books and articles in Comparative Education and the History of Education. He was a co-editor of “Comparative Education at Universities Worldwide”, published by the World Council of Comparative Education Societies in 2008, and of the encyclopedia “International Handbook on Teacher Education” published in 2010. He is currently President of the Southern African Comparative and History of Education Society (SACHES). E-mail: Charl.Wolhuter@nwu.ac.za

RICARDO LOZANO – PhD, Assistant Professor at the Educational Sciences Department, Yeditepe University (Istanbul, Turkey) where he teaches courses in Comparative Education, Education and Development, and Educational Management, with an emphasis on organizational behavior. A graduate of the Texas A&M University where he earned his doctorate in Education Administration and International Economic Development. He earned his MEd in Curriculum Development and Instruction at the Concordia University, Texas. He is a member of the Comparative and International Education Society in the United States and has presented papers at the Society’s National Conference, the National Conference of the Bulgarian Comparative Education Society, and at the World Congress of Comparative Education Societies, among others. Lozano’s main research interests are in the areas of comparative/international education, education and international development. E-mail: ricardolozanov@gmail.com

TATJANA BULAJEVA – Associate Professor at the Department of Education, Vilnius University, Lithuania. Her research fields are education policy and management with a current focus on teacher education policy, language education policy, and education quality evaluation. She specializes in initial and in-service teacher education and training. In 2005–2006, she led the research projects on Early Foreign Language Teaching commissioned and funded by the Ministry of Education and Science. Member of the editorial board of “Acta paedagogica Vilnensia”. E-mail: tatjanab@delfi.lt

AGNĖ STROLYTĖ – Master of Educology, Department of Educology, Vilnius University, Universitetas Str. 9/1, LT-01513 Vilnius, Lithuania, Executive Embassy of Ireland. Address: Gediminas Ave. 1, LT-01103 Vilnius, Lithuania. Research interests: national identity in emigration, Lithuanians in Irish secondary schools, intercultural education in Ireland. E-mail: agnestrolyte@gmail.com

JURATĖ BUTVILIENĖ – doctoral student in Sociology at the Lithuanian Social Research Centre, Institute of Sociology. The

main field of scientific interests is nonformal adult education within the sociological perspective, including structural constructivism and conflict theory methodologies. E-mail: jurate.terepaite@gmail.com

KĘSTUTIS KARDELIS – Habilitated Doctor, Professor, the Utena University of Applied Sciences, Department of Health Care and Rehabilitation. Research interests: physical activity and healthy lifestyle, education of personality, methodology of scientific research. Telephone and e-mail address: (8-389) 61028, k.kardelis@gmail.com

LAIMUTE KARDELIENĖ – Doctor, Professor of the Utena University of Applied Sciences, Department of Health Care and Rehabilitation, Lithuania. Research interests: research methods in the extent of the personality, health promotion, professional socialization. Telephone and e-mail address: (8-389) 61028, laimutekk@gmail.com

LILIJĄ DUOBLIENĖ – Doctor of Social Sciences (Educology), Professor and the Head of the Education Department, Philosophy Faculty, Vilnius University, Lithuania. Her present interests are the contemporary education philosophy, moral education, multicultural education, and higher education. She is the author of many articles on the philosophical aspects of changes in education. E-mail: lilija.duobliene@fsf.vu.lt

ARMINAS VARANAUSKAS – unclassified student of the master study programme of Education Science in Vilnius University Faculty of Philosophy, Lithuania. Member of the Vilnius University Students' Representation and of the Lithuanian Education Council. Interests: higher education, quality assurance, critical pedagogy. E-mail: arminas@vusa.lt